	10 11	GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT
	12	Under the Enforcement Priority System, matters that are low-rated
	13	and are deemed inappropriate for review by the Alternative Dispute Resolution
444	14	Office are forwarded to the Commission with a recommendation for dismissal, or in certain
) T	15	cases where the responses sufficiently rebut the allegations set forth in the complaint, a no
-	16	reason to believe finding.
	17	In this matter, the complainant, David Douek, alleges that David Brumberg,
	18	Brumberg for Congress', and Dr. Barry Brumberg, in his official capacity as treasurer 2 (the 19	"Committee"), received excessive in-kind contributions from an unknown source, in
	20	violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), and failed to report them, as required by 2 U.S.C. § 434(b).
	21	Specifically, the complainant alleges that, in May 2010, the Brumberg Committee began
	22	leasing 1,000 square feet of office space in Manhattan which, the complainant surmises, may
	23	be worth as much as $48 per square first per year, or $4,000 per month, hared on what he
	24	represents as the typical rental costs in the area. In addition, the complainant alleges that the David Ryan Brumberg was an unsuccessful candidate in New York's 14th Congressional District.

Assenting to the Committee's Statements of Organization, Anna Shearen was the treasurer & the time of the activity in question.

During the 2009-2010 election cycles, contributions from individuals were limited to $2,400 per election cycle. The confplaint does not allege that the "waknown source" was a corporation, which would have rendered the alleged contributions prohibited, rather than "excessive."

- 1 Committee failed to report rental costs for its campaign office in its 2010 July Quarterly
- 2 Report.
- The response, filed by Barry Brumberg, on behalf of the Committee, states that the
- 4 Committee paid $2,200 per month, plus utilities, out of official campaign funds for the office
- 5 space. Attached to the response are three check stubs from July 1, 2010, July 2, 2010, and
- 6 August 6, 2010 that, according to Mr. Brumberg, represent rental payments for the
- 7 campaign's office spane in June, July, and August of 2010. Mr. Brumberg also notes that the
- 8 lease for the office space began on June 1, 2010, and that no rest payments had been made at
- 9 the time of the filing of the Committee's 2010 July Quarterly Report (which covers the
- period from April 1, 2010, to June 30, 2010). Accordingly, he asserts that it would not have
- been proper to include these rental payments as expenditures on the Committee's July
- 12 Quarterly Report. Instead, Mr. Brumberg maintains that rental payments, consistent with the
- amounts shown on the rental stubs, were disclosed on the Committee's 2010 Pre-Primary
- Report, filed on September 1, 2010 (covering the period from July 1, 2010, to August 25,
- 15 2010).
- Our review of the Committee's 2010 Pre-Primary Report has revealed that
- disbursements of $2,334.46, $2,200 and $2,414.94 were reported to Bravo Management
- Company, as "rental" payments, on July 1, 2010, July 2, 2010 and August 6, 2010,
- 19 respectively. Although the complainant asserts that rent for comparable office space might
- 20 cost approximately $4,000 a month, as opposed to the $2,200 paid by the Committee, there is
- 21 no other information in the record to support the allegation that the Committee was charged
- 22 less than the fair market value for its use of the premises. Specifically, in support of his
- 23 contention, the complainant points to an April 2009 article in the New York Times (see

1 Exhibit D of the complaint), which discusses the decline in rental value in Manhattan. The

2 article notes that there was a precipitous drop in the rental prices for commercial office space

3 as a result of the recession. In fact, the article points out that in a one year period from 2008

4 to 2009, rental prices fell 23.4%. Since the article was written over a year prior to the

Committee's lease, it is not clear whether the estimates used for the values of commercial

6 rental office space are still accurate.

Thus, it appears that the Committee properly reported its rental payments, and there is no indication that its sental costs were paid for by an unknown source. Moreover, there is no information contained in the record to support the allegation that the Committee paid less than the fair market value for its lease of the commercial office space. Accordingly, based on the information provided in the complaint and response in this matter, we recommend that the Commission find no reason to believe that David Brumberg, Brumberg for Congress, and Dr. Barry Brumberg, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 434(b).

RECOMMENDATIONS

- 1. Find no reason to believe that David Brumberg, Brumberg for Congress, and Dr. Barry Brumberg, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).
- 2. Find no reason to believe that David Brumberg, Brumberg for Congress, and Dr. Barry Brumberg, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b).
- 3. Close the file and approve the appropriate letters.
